The Driver

Jorge Clara Flor
27-1-1993
Valencia- Spain

I'm Jorge Clara Flor, a young driver of 18 years old, that after an extensive campaign on karting and some incursions into Gt and Formula, aims to demonstrate his skills in a competition of high standard, with the ultimate goal of being a professional driver.

Since I started competing in the world of Karting, I have overcome challenge after challenge adjusting to the available resources (which have not been many) and I got great results, but always with hard work and dedication. I think it is precisely this ability to make the most of what we had, what has made me a humble, hardworking and incredibly methodical driver.

The competition comes from my family because my father was a pilot, and my brother is a motorsport engineer, so it's no accident that I have been bitten by the racing bug and I want to dedicate my life to it.

European F3 Open 2012

- European F3 Open Championship

For the 2012 season Jorge final attempt to jump to Formulas is the Formula 3 category contesting the European F3 Open (formerly the Spanish F3).

This competition, FIA approved, is an international tournament in the most important circuits in Spain and Europe, such as SPA, Montmelo, Cheste, Monza, ... in the majority of them has ran the Formula 1, and this prepares the driver for circuits highly relevant in higher-level categories like GP2 or Formula 2.

The tournament consists of 8 races, 7 of them in European circuits, in which the track is shared with other championships precursor to Formula 1 as Formula 2.

Together with the dossier are attached ratings and media coverage of the tournament as well as advertising performance thereof.

Why support Jorge?

We could say that Jorge is a 18 year old boy like any other, but we would be lying, Jorge has chosen a difficult road, available to very few, become a professional pilot.

Reach his maximum before the Formula 1 is becoming a professional driver who can live in the competition thanks to their skills.

Many of the current drivers who aspire to higher levels and to Formula 1 are not the best or the fastest, just are the ones that can afford it and that can invest time and money, to have the level of performance required.

Jorge with his own capacity can't aspire to anything upper than karting, as in the same case of Alonso in his beginnings, the team of Jorge is his father, mother and brother, and they are always trying to get the most of his resources.

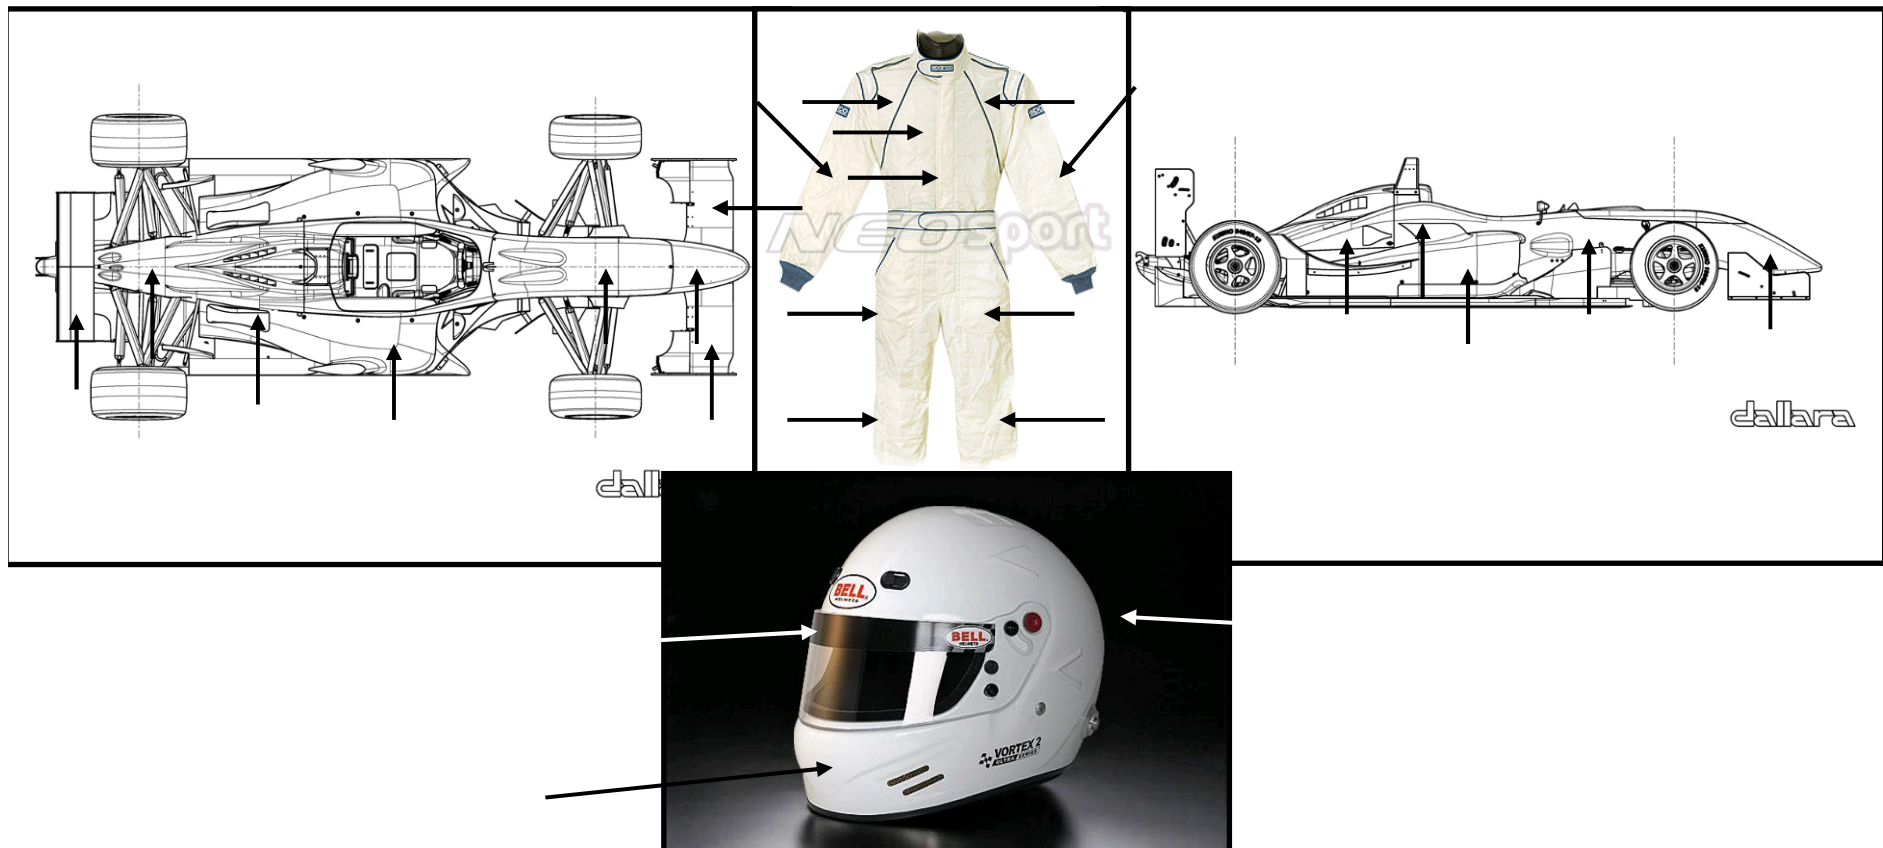

That quality of squeezing the maximum of the available resources is crucial to learn to value what is an opportunity into the world of Competition, where you multiply the cost.

But the qualities that Jorge has as a credential to get your sponsorship are palpable, because since it was uploaded for the first time on a formula in December 2008, has shown intelligence, hard work, perseverance, fitness, genetic predisposition, and above all, professionalism, at the controls of, a Formula Renault, a Formula 3, Formula Academy, a Formula Palmer Audi, Le Mans prototype, or a Fiat Abarth 500. Always showing a rapid and progressive adaptation in all of them.

Anyway you support Jorge, it will be a great value, because our future depends largely in his ability to achieve great results and your determination to support him, only in this way Jorge will be able to develop his sportive program this year.

- Motorsport is a multi dynamic way of image exposure, with a lot of potential ways of exploitation without limits, the most important is do it on the correct way.
- Year by year, and thanks to drivers like Fernando Alonso, Jaime Alguersuari, Pedro de la Rosa, or teams like HRT, motorsport on Spain is taking more and more part of our lives, increasing his followers everyday, having diary sections on newspapers, and TV, something is changing, and now is the moment to consider motorsport as the correct way.
